

Burgan Bank wins ‘Best Internet Banking Service’ award by Banker Middle East

Kuwait City 28 April, 2010: Burgan Bank amongst the leading and the most dynamic banks in the state of Kuwait has won the coveted “Best Internet Banking Service award” by Banker Middle East. The glittering awards ceremony was held recently at the Emirates Tower in Dubai. Receiving the award on behalf of Burgan Bank was Fadi Matar, Chief Marketing officer.

“We are honored to receive this prestigious award from the Banker Middle East. The Middle East is changing at a fast and dynamic pace and it is our constant endeavor to avail the opportunities that come our way. Burgan Bank re-launched its website in 2007 and upgraded it in 2008 to cater to the dynamic needs of customers who are using our online facilities. Since the revamp our website has been winning awards. Burgan Bank offers range of information and we have successfully been able to create a more interactive medium for investors, the media, etc.”

The gala event was attended by all the nominees, in addition to VIPs guests from across different industries, governmental personalities, the media and other guests from the Arab Region. The Banker Middle East Products awards are held annually to recognize excellence in product quality and service delivery throughout the Arab region.